

Cootie Crier #3

24 OCT 2018

STUFF YOU NEED TO KNOW

Pursuant to and in reference thereto of the up-coming future Grand Council meeting, the following information just quite possibly might be important and somewhat useful to those wanting to grace us with their attendance.

WHO:	All Cooties & Auxiliary
WHAT:	Winter Council Meeting
WHERE:	Salem, Oregon USA
WHEN:	18-19 January 2019
WHY:	*Cuz we love it!
HOW MUCH:	Over $1 but under $1k

MEETINGS: All meetings will be held at VFW Post 661, 630 Hood St NE, Salem, Oregon.

Saturday (19 January) schedule is:

0800 = Audit

0815 = Registration

0930 = Joint Opening

1000 = MOC & MOCA Breakouts

1200 = Lunch

1700 = Dinner

(be ready for adjustments....)

MEALS: Friday you are on your own. Saturday lunch ($7) will be a make-your-own sandwich with soup and salad. Dinner ($12) will start about 5pm and will probably be pork loin or chicken breast with some sort of potato, veggie and desert. Alcohol is not available at the Post but it is thought that water, juice, tea, soft drinks and coffee will be offered at some horrendous extra cost. Be prepared and bring lotsa Cootie dollars!

HOST MOTEL: Roadway Inn, 3340 Astoria Way NE, Salem, OR, (503)-393-6000. When you make your reservation be sure to tell them you are with the VFW-MOC. Single King = $66+tax; Double Queen = $77+tax. Rooms come with coffee pot, refrigerator, and free WIFI. A microwave is available in the lobby. Free Continental breakfast 6:30am-9:30am.

NOTES: The Hospitality Room will be open Friday night only and will be somewhere in the motel complex. Early registration might happen if I can find a big enough hole in the traffic. MOC Registration fee will be $4 + $1 shipping and handling; for all of this you get one really snazzy name tag and the privilege of throwing lotsa money on the floor.
